

Do you work in the hospitality sector?

Are you sick of poverty pay, no job security, no set shift patterns, work rotas given out at short notice, overwork due to staff shortages, discrimination, bullying employers and all the rest we have to put up with as hospitality workers?

Are you fed up with the way you're being treated at work?

Don't just put up with it, get organised and fight back!

Contact the Solidarity Federation Hospitality Workers Union if you are experiencing problems at work and we can offer help and support.

The Solidarity Federation Hospitality Workers Union is a new and different kind of union.

We are democratic, oppose discrimination in all its forms,
and are dedicated to improving hospitality workers' pay and working conditions while striving to create a better world.
