

Do you sometimes feel your union isn't listening to you?

Do you sometimes wonder whose interests they're representing?

The chances are your union suffers from as much bureaucracy as the very institution you are fighting against!

If you are sick of the top-down approach, protect your interests by joining the Solidarity Federation Education Union.

The Solidarity Federation Education Union (SFEU) is a union established out of the desire for connected struggle and defence of all education workers.

In our small but growing union, we welcome all workers within the industry, from early years, primary, secondary, to special and higher education. Whether you are a teacher, student teacher, lecturer, researcher, learning support worker, administrator, cleaner or work in facilities at your institution – we are the union where you will have a voice and we stand in solidarity together.
